Play Enjoyed

The Jr. Grain Club Play, "Have a Heart," was produced in the school auditorium on Wednesday, May 19th and again in Kinsella on Friday, May 21st.

This play was very well received in both places. The young folk knew their parts very well indeed and performed them excellently. The cast included: Martin Smallwood, Pat Milne, Joan Nissen, Bob Dunbar, Ken Fischer and Harold Dootson.

This play has been asked for a return engagement in Kinsella and there are also many at Irma reception.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the Viking hotel. The bride and groom's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and was flanked by lighted candles and bouquets of carnations and snapdragons.

Rev. Father Hickey proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded.

During the afternoon about 75 relatives and friends were welcomed at an Open House at the bride's home north of Jarrov.

For her going away ensemble Mrs. Helfrich chose a surf green suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a few days honeymoon the newlyweds will make their home temporarily at Provost where the groom is employed by the Trans-Canada Pipe Line.

Wedding Bells

HELFRICH — ORACHESKI

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, in Viking May 22 when Evelyn Helen, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oracheski of Kinsella exchanged vows with Stuart Carl, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. Helfrich of Viking. Spring flower bouquets adorned the altar for this occasion.

Rev. Father Hickey officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with an overskirt of nylon tulle and applied chantilly lace. The snug fitting bodice of lace over satin featured a tulle yoke, stand up winged collar and lily point sleeves. A full length veil hung from her rhinestone tiara and she carried a white prayer book and an orchid. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. L. Owens of Vancouver as matron of honor and Margaret as bridesmaid. They wore floor length gowns in strapless models of net over taffeta skirts, brocaded satin tops and matching boleros in yellow and mauve respectively. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by Armand Cartwright and Art Lansing of Viking. Ushering the guests were Edward and Kenneth Oracheski, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a dress of grey rayon crepe with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

During the ceremony the choir sang "Pray for Me Oh Mother Dear," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "O Sacred Heart Divine," accompanied by Mrs. Anne Slavik as organist.

Miss Gladys Confort took photos of the wedding party during reception.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the Viking hotel. The bride and groom's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and was flanked by lighted candles and bouquets of carnations and snapdragons.

Rev. Father Hickey proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded.

Urge Early Reservations For Annual Churchill Excursion

REGINA.—The annual excursion train to Churchill will this year travel through eastern Saskatchewan before reaching the Hudson Bay rail line at the town of Hudson Bay. This was announced by W. J. Hansen, Director of Trade Services in the provincial Department of Co-operation. Mr. Hansen said excursion trains will leave Saskatoon and Regina on the evening of July 28th, and after joining at Melville will proceed by way of Yorkton and Canora to Hudson Bay.

All-inclusive excursion rates are: $98.50 from Saskatoon or Regina; $92.30 from Melville; $91.15 from Yorkton and $89.50 from Canora. These rates, Mr. Hansen pointed out, cover the actual fare which is considerably reduced from regular rates, superb meals in an air-conditioned car, lower berth, and entertainment throughout the trip. Lower fares may be obtained by taking an upper berth or by sharing a lower berth.

Favorite features of the annual excursion are tours of the 2.5 million bushel grain terminals at Churchill and of Fort Prince of Wales, ocean-going freighters loading and unloading at the port, white whales in the waters of Hudson Bay, and a special old-time jamboree with Churchill residents and port officials as guests. A one-hour stop-over will be provided at The Pass on both the north-bound and south-bound trip.

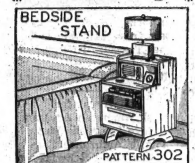

Because popularity of the trip is steadily increasing, Mr. Hansen urged that those who intend to go arrange reservations as soon as possible. A $20 deposit is required which may be made to a CNR agent, travel agent, the Secretary of the Hudson Bay Route Association at Saskatoon, or to W. J. Hansen, Director of Trade Services, Legislative Building, Regina.

One train will leave Saskatoon at 6:00 p.m. MST, Wednesday, July 28th, arriving in Melville at 1:30 a.m. CST, Thursday, July 29th. A second train will leave Regina at 9:00 p.m. MST, Wednesday, July 28th, arriving in Melville at 1:30 a.m. CST, Thursday, July 29th.

Enough clear pine for a pair of these stands with thin plywood for drawers and backing will cost about eight dollars at the nearest yard. For the skilled craftsman with power tools, a glued-up stock in any of the hardwoods in cabinet-makers grade is recommended as more suitable material for this design. The lines are modern yet harmonize with a wide variety of furnishings. A painted, stained or natural wood finish may be used. The proportions are just right for lamp, radio, books and magazines. The utility drawer is eight inches deep and is of the simple block-front construction. This pattern is included in the Bedroom Furniture Packet at $1.50 or 30¢ may be ordered separately at only 35¢.

This bench is made of identical units and may be extended to accommodate a large group by merely adding sections. Begin with one or two which may be bolted together later with the table within the reach of all. These pieces should be made of the cheaper units of lumber as they are of simple design. The table and bench units are made from standard widths cut to the right lengths with a hand saw. The table top is an exception and a compass saw costing about a dollar is used for this. All units are put together with hammer and nails. Paint the joints to avoid rot and the finish may be painted or some natural stain. Order patterns by numbers and enclose 35¢ for each. The Lawn and Garden Packet contains five patterns of other practical outdoor pieces. Price of packet is $1.50 postpaid.

Funny and Otherwise

The drunk staggered towards the left shaft, opened the gates and stepped into what he thought was the lift. But it wasn't. Picking himself up after falling three flights, he shouted up the shaft: "Idiot, I said 'Up!'."

The estate agent was showing Rodger over and was saying: "This rather a poor district?" asked Rodger.

"Certainly not," replied the agent. "You'll find that your neighbors never borrow less than fifty dollars."

A conciliated bachelor was invited to dinner by a woman of his acquaintance, but did not accept.

A few days later, meeting her in the street, he said in his best manner, "I believe you asked me to dine with you last night."

The woman looked at him thoughtfully. "Why, yes, I believe I did," she answered brightly. "And did you come?"

A five-year-old girl, taken to a concert, was warned that she must remain quiet in her seat. She listened respectfully to two intricate pieces, then turned to her mother and asked gravely: "Is it all right if I scream now?"

A determined-looking woman was having trouble in finding a seat in the train when a porter approached.

"Here, ma'am," he suggested. "It's too full this end. Come with me to the front of the train and I'll fix you up."

"In fixed you won't," the woman exclaimed. "If you take me for a mascot?"

"Am I the first girl you ever kissed?"

"You may have been. Were you ever in Blackpool?"

"I lent Smith $20 last night. He told me he was stranded high and dry."

"That's strange. I lent him ten because he said he could hardly keep his head above water."

After a shipwreck, a doctor, a parson and a lawyer found themselves in a rowing boat without oars. They drifted in sight of an island, but their only hope of landing was for someone to go over the side through the shark-infested sea and tow the boat to land.

Lots were drawn, and it fell to the lawyer. When he slipped over the side the sharks divided and made an avenue for him.

"An answer to prayer," said the parson.

"No, no, just professional courtesy," commented the doctor.

Husband: "What would you like for your birthday, dear?" Wife: "Nothing expensive this year. Just something you made yourself."

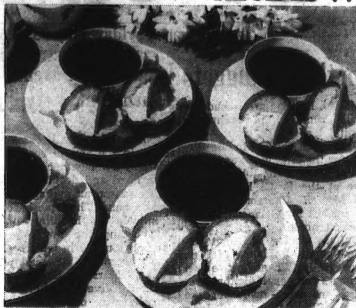

"For instance?"

"Money!"

A learned individual was anxious to clarify a few points on art. He approached the girl behind the enquiry desk at a public library and asked: "Where can I find some data on Correggio and his 'Flight Into Egypt'?"

The girl stopped powdering her nose long enough to inform him, "Everything on aviation in Room 123."

Woman Doctor Has Spent 25 Years In Northern Alberta

KEG RIVER, Alta.—Dr. Mary Percy Jackson arrived in 1929 for one year's medical experience in the wilds of north-western Alberta. She's still here. Dr. Jackson was living in Birmingham, England, when she saw an advertisement in a British medical journal requesting well-qualified British doctors who were physically strong and capable of taking complete charge of any type of emergency without hospital facilities.

So she left England's industrial Midlands and a few weeks later found herself in a rugged land 100 miles from the nearest town and the railway and two miles from her next-door neighbor.

Dr. Jackson was assigned to the Battle River prairie district on the Notikewin river. Even Peace River town, 327 miles northwest of Edmonton, she travelled 100 miles up the Peace river by boat, then jolled the last 20 miles to her post by wagon.

The 14-by-20 foot shack which was her headquarters was divided a dispensary. The living room also served as a kitchen and a waiting room while the dispensary did double service as a consulting room.

There were no roads and no telephone or telegraphic communication. Even the Notikewin river, her only water supply in warm weather, had to be forded if Dr. Jackson visited patients living on the other side.

By horse in summer and by sleigh in winter, she covered an area of more than 1,500 square miles. Without a helper, she prescribed medicine, performed minor surgery and pulled teeth. The doctor's scattered population admired and loved their travelling doctor.

Once, during eight days of April 1929, with less than two nights' sleep, she rode 180 miles on horseback and was hauled 100 miles by a caterpillar tractor to bring an appendix case to hospital.

Dr. Jackson married Frank Jackson of nearby Keg River town, in 1931. Now she has a small but well-equipped dispensary here. Her services are available to anyone, free of charge.

Her marriage brought Dr. Jackson additional responsibilities. She had to market his grain and bring in supplies.

The wagon trail to Peace River was a hard one at any season. Dr. Jackson recalls swimming cold rivers to snub a rope around a tree so a team could winch the wagon to the other side.

Life is quieter, but no less busy, now.

Manitoba Purchases Goose Sanctuary

A wild goose breeding sanctuary has been purchased by the Manitoba government and a variety of conservation activities will be practiced on the new site, it was announced by J. C. Cowan, Deputy Minister of Mines and Natural Resources.

The new purchase is a 160-acre farm at Rennie, Man., situated on the eastern border of the Whiteshell Forest Reserve. The farm was formerly owned by Alf Hole who established the breeding sanctuary 16 years ago and has maintained it ever since.

Purchase of the sanctuary by the government was one of the recommendations made at the last annual meeting of the Manitoba Tourist association.

Ducks Returning To 27,000 Acre Sanctuary In Alberta

EDMONTON, Alta.—A 16-year campaign by Ducks Unlimited to restore the balance of nature at Ministick lake sanctuary, 33 miles east of Edmonton is starting to pay off. Warden Francis Williams reports that recent warm weather has seen masses of ducks land at the 27,000-acre sanctuary on their flight north to summer feeding grounds.

Time was when there weren't many ducks in the area and there was a danger they would grow fewer each year.

The story goes back to the 1870s when trappers moved into the district in search of beaver. It proved a rich hunting-ground and soon there were no beaver left.

Old beaver dams crumbled. Ponds and sloughs, where the dams had held back the water, dried up. Lake levels dropped as much as 10 feet.

Waterfowl continued to use the district en route north but their numbers reduced in ratio to the drying-up of the area.

In 1925 the federal government declared the Ministick lake district a federal sanctuary. In 1938, Ducks Unlimited, furthering its cause of wildlife conservation, decided to do something about the situation. A full-time warden was appointed and conditions began to improve.

Four years ago, Ducks Unlimited constructed 11 dams at strategic points, eight of them where, many years before, the original beaver-built dams were located. The dams created a pond and stream system favorable to the re-establishment of the animals.

Rennie Harley, western manager of Ducks Unlimited, requested beaver from the Alberta game branch. Eight adult beaver were released in the creeks and streams.

Today, at least three pairs of beaver are known to be fully established. One pair has raised the water level by 18 inches in one of the ponds created by a dam. Another pair has created a private pond on the same creek by damming further upstream.

PIONEER PASSES

NIELS CHRISTIAN JENSEN REDVERS, Sask.—The Redvers community was saddened recently by the death of Niels Christian Jensen, at the age of 103 years and nine months. He passed away quietly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arnold Olsen, Redvers, where he had made his home for many years.

Mr. Jensen was well known in the Danish community, and well liked by all for his friendliness, and keen interest in all community affairs.

FAST AFLOAT

The young of the Blue Goose is about as fast on foot on dry land or mud as any of the waterfowl. Even when only three days old, the goslings have led swamphen collectors a merry chase. . . . In one recorded instance, new Blues of tender age had to be chased a good half-mile over the mud flats of their Arctic nesting ground before being captured, reports Ducks Unlimited.

Ancient Norsemen believed the lights of the aurora were the Valkyries riding their ghostly horses through the sky. 3099

The June rains seem to have a head start on the month itself. All this moisture in May is very nice but no one is getting much seeding done. However, if a warm spell comes along, any seed planted will grow in a hurry after all this rain.

Among those who spent the long weekend at their homes here were Misses Jean Larson, Doreen Simmermon, Shirley Mae Brown, Charlotte Milne and Mr. Allen Rae.

Mr. D. L. Robertson of Vancouver visited with relatives here last week.

The C.N. has a work crew here, with the work train in the Irma siding. This crew's job is to lay new rails on the C.N. tracks.

A chartered bus and a good number of Irma folk in cars attended the 24th of May sports day in Vermilion. The Irma Sr. Baseball team came home with 1st money as did the Irma Ladies' football team. So it looks as though the Irma athletes are well away on another victorious season.

Cpl. H. Lewis, Mrs. Lewis and small daughter, Debbie, arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Frickleton were Edmonton visitors last weekend.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Arnold, at Edmonton on Monday, May 17th, a daughter,

Mr. A. H. L. Ke, who came to Kinsella, to attend the wedding of his grandson, Jack Simmons, journeyed on to Irma last week where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig. Mr. Locke was able to meet many of his old friends, when he attended the re-dedication service at the Irma United Church last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holt left

Edmonton last week for their new home at Berwyn, Alberta. Phil has accepted a position there as an assistant District Agriculturalist. His many friends at Irma wish him every success in his chosen work.

Mr. H. C. Nissen expects to go to Edmonton next week where he will undergo a surgical operation.

Where oh where does the money go?

That's a question we all ask ourselves!

We ask it at Imperial too.

And the answer is to be found in our annual report.

Here is where each Imperial dollar went last year.

53½¢ went to buy crude oil and other raw materials.

28½¢ went to operating costs... including pay cheques to our employees.

10¢ was gobbled up in taxes... and this doesn't include the provincial gasoline tax.

4¢ was used to replace worn-out equipment.

The rest... 4¢... was dividends to our shareholders for the use of plants and equipment bought with their money.
